

201 POLICY - Institutional Councils and Committees Structure

201.1 Statement of Policy

Redlands Community College supports a participatory decision making process. The Board of Regents is the institutional body with the final decision making authority in all areas where such authority has not been delegated to the College President. Institutional councils and committees that are established by Board policy participate in the decision making process as specified in the Procedures section of the Policies and Procedures Manual.

201.2 Councils and Committees

The identity, membership, purposes and responsibilities of the Councils will be specified in the Procedures section of the Policies and Procedures Manual. The identities, purposes, responsibilities, and membership of Standing Institutional Committees and of ad hoc committees and task forces are specified in the Procedures section of the Policies and Procedures Manual.
