608 PROCEDURE – Academic Year Definition

608.2:1 Definitions

One-semester-hour of credit is normally awarded for completion of a course meeting for 800 instructional minutes, 50 minutes per week for sixteen weeks, exclusive of enrollment, orientation, and scheduled breaks. Organized examination days may be counted as instructional days.

Laboratory credit is normally awarded at a rate not to exceed one-half the instructional rate. One-semester-hour of credit is normally awarded for completion of a laboratory meeting a minimum of 1600 minutes, 100 minutes per week for sixteen weeks.

Block or alternative course schedules may also occur within the dates set forth for a semester or summer session. Courses offered during academic terms shorter than a semester will observe the same academic standards involving instructional hours per semester-credit as those courses offered during a standard academic semester.
